14:08:21 From jennifer Rentz to Everyone:

Those resources should be balanced. Not all men like the same things.

14:08:57 From Gayle Reid, Cowlitz County to Everyone:

Which specific resources would you recommend?

14:09:10 From jennifer Rentz to Everyone:

IE: Hanging out at Harbor Freight is not interesting to a dad who is not into handyman stuff

14:10:04 From Lyndsee Vargas to Everyone:

Do you have recommendations as to where to look for mental health supports and information for fathers? I've been using resources from WA Perinatal Support

14:10:10 From Thea (she/her) to Everyone:

You mentioned the importance of promoting self-care – any ideas on how to encourage that as a classroom teacher?

14:10:47 From Erin Adams(she/her) to Everyone:

Is there any nationwide father's network program?

14:13:26 From IECC Technical Support to Everyone:

Neslons Recommendations: Getting them to talk about Mental Health Struggles – barriers #1 there is a stigma around asking for help, there is a huge stigma about asking for help around Mental health struggles. Supports counseling, getting them into activities, referring them to networking opportunities that they may be interested in.

14:13:56 From Anna W, Family Resources Coordinator to Everyone:

NAMI has a go at your own pace Basics for Parents course

14:15:05 From IECC Technical Support to Everyone:

You mentioned the importance of promoting self-care – any ideas on how to encourage that as a classroom teacher? 1 – approach from individual perspective, talking with the individual and supporting them finding resources that may help them personally. 2. Could be something you do as a general information that may assist everyone – resources in the community. Hopefully it may reach that person.
